HealthCap Risk Management - Quality Matters

Quality is the key to promoting positive outcomes and building relationships with residents and families. As part of a proactive risk management program, comprehensive assessments, care planning and accurate documentation are essential. This program was developed to assist professional staff in providing quality of care through comprehensive assessments, care planning and resident centered care with the goal of exceeding regulatory requirements.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Define the assessment process and state the role of the nursing process across disciplines
- Summarize why documentation is important and how to document findings
- Identify quantifiable objectives in care plan development for the highest level of functioning the resident is expected to attain
- Explain how and when to initiate a past non-compliance or the IDR/IIDR process

Erica Holman, LNHA, LMSW
Risk Management Consultant, HealthCap RMS

Angie is the Director of HealthCap RMS where she oversees risk management, education and assessments of approximately 2,000 facilities across the country. A proven leader in the longterm care industry, Angie has a wealth of experience in the operational and clinical aspects of the industry, including experience as an Administrator, Director of Nursing, Corporate Quality Assurance Coordinator and as an independent consultant.

Randy is a licensed nursing home administrator and has special expertise in the operations and services of rural and small urban providers. Randy has served as a Regional Administrator responsible for opening the assisted living, assisted living memory support and skilled nursing components of a nation-wide continuing care retirement community. Randy serves as the HIPAA Compliance Officer for HealthCap Risk Management and has participated in training programs sponsored by the American Health Information Management Association. He has also served as a regulatory consultant to continuing care retirement communities and as a Nursing Home Administrator, Interim Administrator, and Director of Education and Marketing in the state of Nebraska. Randy has been a featured speaker at various healthcare conferences throughout the Midwest and had the honor of being the featured speaker at the 2006 LeadingAge Annual Convention.

Erica is a licensed nursing home administrator with a master's degree in clinical social work. She entered the healthcare arena working as a counselor in a psychiatric hospital and later trained as a psychotherapist with an interest in depression and anxiety. She began working in long term care as the Director of an Alzheimer unit in the early 1990s and became a licensed nursing home administrator in 1995. She worked for ten years as a consultant, helping facilities attain regulatory compliance. She is an expert in the development and implementation of quality assurance and behavior management programs, and has served as an administrator in both stand-alone and multi-facility settings.
